A Century of Grace and Blessings

Congratulations to our beloved church on reaching its centennial milestone! Over the last century, our church has been a guiding light, offering hope, love, and a sense of community to all. This momentous occasion is a testament to the dedication and faith of all those who have been a part of our congregation, both past and present. As we continue our celebration a century of worship, service, and fellowship, let us reflect on the countless lives that have been touched and transformed by the spirit of our church that our founders have given us.

May this centennial celebration be a time of joy, gratitude, and renewed commitment to continue our mission of spreading kindness and compassion. Our journey has been one of triumphs and challenges, growth and transformation, all guided by the unwavering presence of the Lord. Join Us for a Spectacular Celebration from September 1, 2023 to April 30, 2024. Here is to the next 100 years of faith, unity, and blessings for our church and the community it serves.
